Local Department.

Del. Cummings has returned from his sojourn in Chicago.

Miss Eli Hopkins is visiting her brother Jerome and the little milliner.

Mrs. May Graham of Booneville, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. S. Sheldon.

Many people will be well pleased that Rev.
Geo. L. Cole is to remain in town another year.

Frank McEntee of Olean, N. Y., is visiting his parents and friends in Paw Paw and vicinity.

Marion DeLaVerne has accepted a desirable situation with a dry goods firm in Marshall, Mich.

George Worthey rejoices in a pension recently allowed him. As usual Galligan was his attorney.

Some outside work has been done on the Baptist church, improving its outward appearance very much.

That elegant bouquet of ours was presented to us by Mrs. J. H. P., but no, she did not want us to tell.

We should have said Gliddenburg instead of Glendale last week when speaking of L.
A. Putnam and his drunk.

Charley Galligan was offered $600 by a Chicago man for his three years old Dauntless colt. He didn't take it.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church held a social at the residence of O.
W. Rowland last Tuesday evening.

Married, Sept. 18th, 1883, by M. D. Lane, Esq., at Waverly, Mich., William Harriot and Blanche L. Tuttle, both of Waverly.

The Presbyterian society will hold a social at the residence of N. M. Fugley, on Friday afternoon and evening of this week. All are invited.

A lady from Hillsdale is in town introducing a musical work containing a large number of musical gems, both vocal and instrumental.

We had four peach trees standing in our garden. The commissioners whitewashed three of them and we cut them down without a single kick.

Mr. Champlin of Grand Rapids, late candidate for the Supreme Bench, has been attending our circuit court. He is a fine looking gentleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Editor of the Courier, J. H.
Bryar, E. D. Sirrine and several other residents of our village took in Modjeska at Kalamazoo, last Monday evening.

There are now 246 qualified teachers in Van Buren county. As there are but 152 districts, the supply would seem to equal the demand notwithstanding failures.

Charley Mosier is spending a few days in town with his family looking hale and hearty.
They say he passes himself among strangers as Sluggish Sullivan from Boston.

Those who wish to learn and practice vocal music can not do better than to join the elementary and chorals classes of Oak Park Seminary, under the tuition of Prof. C. E.
Hitchins.

S. H. Jones has purchased the Lucas furniture building on Main street, and has also bought out his partner's interest in the business. Read his new advertisement in another column.

Capt. Stewart of the Sentinel, and his wife were in town on Monday and Tuesday last.
Of course Ed. called at the Northerner office, where all members of the "press gang" are ever welcome.

Mrs. J. H. Prater has just received a complete and handsome assortment of birthday cards, which almost make us wish we were young enough to have our birthday celebrated. Call and look at them.

There will be a musical and literary social under the auspices of Oak Park Seminary, at the residence of Mr. H. S. Richards, Tuesday evening, September 25th. All are cordially invited to be present.

B. Jennings of Deatur, was taken violently ill last Monday morning, with cramps in the stomach, and died a few minutes before midnight of the same day. Mr. Jennings was well known and highly respected.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady of Mishawaka, Wis., consists of Mrs. B. F. Roberts, are visiting in town. They had their twin boy babies at Prater's last Monday getting their pictures taken. They were handsome little fellows.

Henry Sherman, who was tried last Thursday for an assault with intent to rob, was convicted of an assault only and sentenced to twenty-five days imprisonment and $10 fine, and in default of the payment of such fine, to fifteen days additional in jail.

Nice shower last Sunday morning but not enough to do much good. There has been a continuous drought for nearly two months.
If we don't get more rain soon farmers will be late with seeding, and some parts of our state will be in danger of disastrous forest fires.

Quite a number of gentlemen from the western part of the county have been attending court this week. Among them we noticed Wm. Bennett and C. H. Engle of Hartford, and A. M. Harrison and Elder J. H.
Reese of Bangor. Ministers will go a courting sometimes, you know.

The Message says Paw Paw is having trouble with her village marshal over an alleged defalcation, and that the matter is being judiciously investigated. This will be news to Paw Paw. We have never heard that our marshal was being investigated either judiciously or injudiciously.

While some parties were engaged one day last week, near Osteno in Kalamazoo county, digging a well, they found embedded in the earth at a depth of 34 feet, an old style monkey wrench. As no excavation has been made there within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, the query naturally arises, how came it there?

In the suit of the village against John W.
Hall, late treasurer of the corporation, and his bondmen, the jury rendered a verdict against the defendants of $350.00 and costs.
The Northerner has no explanation to offer concerning this matter, but as once before stated it does not believe Mr. Hall knowingly converted any of the village money to his own use.

"Lyons" Tirrell and his wife rejoice in the company of a number of relatives from abroad. Mr. Harrison Dodge of Watertown, N. Y., Mr. Asa Dodge, of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Dodge, of Hart, Mich., brothers and sister of Mrs. Stuyvesant—mother of Mrs.
Tirrell—and two of Mrs. Stuyvesant's nephews, one from Minnesota and one from Pennsylvania, are all visiting at J. L.'s.

Mrs. Odell, the milliner, invited the Northerner reporter in to look at her new stock.
She and Mrs. Marshall have a splendid assortment of their respective kinds of goods.
The reporter was bewildered by the show of feathers, hats, ribbons, waves and other articles of which he neither knew the names nor uses. Ladies, just go and see for yourselves.

The appointment for pastors of the different M. E. churches in this county are as follows: Bangor, H. H. Parker; Deatur, J. P.
Force; Hartford and Lawrence, L. W. Earl; Keeler, G. A. Buell; Lawton, O. D. Watkins; Mattawan, to be supplied; Paw Paw, G. L.
Cole; Irington, A. N. Eldred; South Haven, A. E. Ketcham; Bloomington, E. V. Armstrong; Kendall, J. Wilkes. Major D. W.
Fow goes to Pennville, Allegan county.

Some days ago Supervisor Young called our attention to the Economizer plow, which he was handling, with a reversible point and share, manufactured at South Bend, Ind.
We thought it a good thing. Now comes L.
B. Conner, Esq., with the Oliver combination plow No. 99 ship share and point which is claimed to be still better. We are not a farmer but it looks as if they would be a great improvement over the old plows and save farmers many dollars worth of points.
Mr. Conner will be pleased to explain the good points of his plow to those who are interested. Mr. Young ditto.

In the case of the People vs. Jas. Bennett, violation of liquor law, the respondent came into court on Friday last and plead guilty to the charge. The court in construing the statute held that it had no power to fine without imprisonment, and imposed a sen-ence of fifty dollars fine and costs of prosecution, together with imprisonment for ten days, and in default of payment of fine and costs an additional imprisonment of thirty days. In view of Mr. Bennett's ill health he was ordered to be confined in one of the upper rooms of the jail instead of in the jail proper.

Professor Russell reports that he is well pleased with both the teachers and the pupils of our school, and that the term has opened in a very satisfactory manner. A personal visit made last Monday convinces us that his opinion is well founded. The series of lectures that were advertised have been begun and will be continued. Dr. C.
S. Maynard has addressed the school on the subject of Anatomy, and O. W. Rowland has spoken upon Civil Government. These gentlemen will give a full course of lectures on their chosen subjects, and it is expected that the services of others will be secured to present the subjects of Commercial Law, Insurance, and other practical and interesting topics.

One Frank Combs of Lawrence was on board the excursion train at Hartford as it started on its return from that village Wednesday evening of last week. When the conductor came around he offered a pass issued to another party for the excursion which left Hartford in the morning. This the conductor refused to accept, and Combs refusing to pay his fare was forcibly ejected from the car. After he was put off he arose to his feet and, turning, struck Will. Macgellar of this village, who was not interfering with him in the least, a violent blow in the face felling him to the ground. Combs climbed into the rear car and paid his fare to Lawrence, at which place he left the train swearing all kinds of vengeance. He ought to have been arrested and punished but no complaint was made against him.

Fairs, Expositions, and Tournaments.
The State Fair is now being held in the city of Detroit.

C. W. Young, Esq., is attending to his duties at Detroit as one of the board of directors of the State Fair.

The Detroit Art Loan exhibition is proving a grand success. We acknowledge the courtesy of a complimentary ticket of admission.

The Niles Firemen's Tournament Association will hold their first annual tournament in Niles, Mich. September 26, 27, and 28, 1883.

The 33d Annual Fair of the Cass County Agricultural Society, will be held at Casopolis, Mich., on the 19th, 20th and 21st of the present month.

On Wednesday and Thursday, October 17 and 18, 1883, at South Haven, the Western Van Buren and Allegan county Agricultural Society will hold their first annual fair.

The 33d annual exhibition of the Berrien County Agricultural Fair will be held at Niles, Sept. 25, 26, 27 and 28, 1883. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket.

The Schoolcraft Agricultural Society and Driving Park Association will hold its annual fall fair at Schoolcraft, Michigan, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 10, 11, and 12, 1883.

The fall meeting of the Chicago Driving Park, will be held October 6, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, 1883. Over $10,000 are offered in prizes, and it promises to be one of the most interesting racing events of the season.

Through the courtesy of Mr. J. F. Tryon, secretary of the Downage Union Fair Association, we have received a complimentary ticket of admission to the fifth annual exhibition to be held at Downage, October 9, 10, 11 and 12, 1883.

On Thursday, October 4th, after Hon.
George L. Yapple's address, a special train will leave Paw Paw for Chicago at half past five, p. m., so as to enable people attending the fair from the western part of the county to reach their homes in good season.

Week after next the fair at Paw Paw will be in full progress. It sometimes happens that the best results are attained by earnest effort in a brief time. This ought to be made true of the fair this year, as especial pains are being taken to add desirable attractions. Enlarged premiums are offered in most departments, and two speed premiums have been added to those already advertised, open only to horses owned in the county. A purse of $100.00 in four premiums for five-year-olds or under and a like purse for a free-for-all trotting race. Never mind blasted crops, the failure of fruits, and the shortage of other things. Bring what you can get together and talk matters over, have a good social time and encourage one another. Not all years are like this; and now is a capital time to push the interests of the fair permanently forward. Hon. Geo. L.
Yapple will deliver an address on Thursday, October 4th, at 2:30 p. m. Subject, "Thoughts and Production."

Drunks.

Before Esq. Mason, on Monday last, J. S.
Wood of Porter, Plea, guilty. Fined $10 and costs $4.25. Paid his fine and returned home a poorer and sadder man.

On Monday, before Esq. Mason, Chiel Hagerman, Plea, guilty. Sentence $10 fine and $3.50 costs or 15 days in the cooler.
Preferred to pay rather than board.

Before Esq. Warner, on Tuesday, Veto Myers. His usual crack. Plea guilty. Fined $10 and costs $4.00. As usual he reached down for the needed funds which he forked over and departed. It is hardly to be supposed he had his money's worth.

In the office of Justice Mason on Monday last, Wm. Wilson of Porter, drunk and disorderly, and had it not been for the interference of his wife, who took him home, he would have been committed to jail for contempt of court. He was very anxious to ascertain if there was no friend of a soldier there. He didn't find many friends for a soldier who was drunk.

Circuit Court.

People vs. Herbert VanZandt; J. G. Parkhurst assigned as attorney for respondent.
Geo. S. Murphy vs. Henry C. Teed; tried before Judge Pealer; decision reserved. Darius Cole vs. John Hing et al.; cause dismissed. Van Buren Div. T. & S. H. R. R. vs.

$263.40 and costs. Frost, and Trustees of Village of Paw Paw vs. John W. Ball et al.; judgment for plaintiff $350.33 and costs. L. U.
Knowles vs. B. A. Olney; judgment, for defendant. People vs. Henry Sherman; verdict, guilty of assault; sentence, 25 days imprisonment and $10 fine. David A. Sahlin et al. vs. Jos.
Cohn; judgment, for plaintiff by default $1279.20 and costs.
